Put a little sparkle into hospice walk

Women asked to 'glitter up' for night event

By NAZIA PARVEEN

Women are being urged to support East Lancashire Hospice by taking part in a late-night sponsored walk donned in glittery attire.

The Park Lee Road hospice has announced its annual sponsored walk will start on May 22 at 10pm.

Up to 1,000 woman are expected to take part in the ten-mile trek.

And this year, entrants must wear tiaras, wigs and glitter to bring a touch of sparkle to the streets.

The 'Silver Starlight Walk' is fully marshalled, starting at the Soccerdome, Haslingden Road and also the DW Gym, in Mayson Street.

Denise Gee, events organiser at the hospice, said: "This year, we want to bring a real element of fun and occasion to the walk, and as its ladies only, what better way to dress up and have fun while you raise money for East Lancashire Hospice.

"The night-time walk is always very special, and as all the walkers are walking for a common purpose, the sense of occasion is magnificent. We want the walk to be as girly and sparkly as possible, so please use your imagination, whether it's a wig, spray-on glitter, we don't mind, as long as it's fun and sparkly."

The aim of the walk is to raise money for the East Lancashire Hospice, which provides care and support for Blackburn, Darwen, Hyndburn and Ribble Valley patients

The operational costs of the hospice are over £2.8 million each year, and the hospice relies heavily on donations and fundraising events such as this to continue providing this care.

Last year, more than 800 walkers took part, raising over £80,000.

To join in the walk, you'll need to fill in a registration form, which is available from the hospice or the DW gym. Call 01254 342847 or email denise.gee@eastlancspct.nhs.uk.

Every walker will receive a special Silver Starlight Walk T-shirt, goody bag, refreshments and a breakfast at the finish line.

Clock is dedicated to Colin

A dedication ceremony in a revamped garden area has honoured an environmental campaigner.

Rishton man Colin Cooper was honoured at a ceremony in the Parker Street garden.

The garden's new pillar clock was dedicated to him in recognition of more than a decade spent making the borough greener.

Mr Cooper, a retired personnel manager, was one of the founding members of the borough's Prospects environmental charity in 1995 and is an active volunteer on Prospect's Rishton panel.

The ceremony on Saturday saw Mr Cooper honoured by Hyndburn Mayor Coun Paul Barton before his family and friends and a crowd of local residents and councillors.

PRAISE: Colin Cooper with Hyndburn Mayor Paul Barton

He said: "It was a nice day and people said a lot of nice things. It's great to be honoured but I'll carry on as normal because there's plenty to do — the days aren't long enough."

Prospects chairman Phil Barwood said: "Colin has spent countless amounts of energy on keeping Hyndburn clean. He's a star, frankly."

Please freeze beer duty, Mr Darling

An East Lancashire licensing expert has welcomed calls by the industry to freeze the duty on beer.

The British Beer and Pub Association has advised the Treasury that a beer duty freeze in the next budget could save 7,500 jobs in the next year.

Chancellor Alistair Darling (right) has pledged to increase beer duty by two per cent above inflation for the next four years. Malcolm Ireland, head of licensing at Napthens solicitors, which has offices in Blackburn and Chorley said: "The licensed trade has been hit hard by several factors. It is time to see some support for one of the economy's proudest and most historic sectors."

Brownies' trip

Brownies have returned from a four-day trip to London.

A visit to see the Cory and the Fodens Brass Bands in Manchester is being organised by Hyndburn Theatre Group.

The group will be travelling to the event on Sunday, May 9 at Bridgewater Hall. For more information contact Audrey Moorhouse on 01254 260650.

Young Sufyaan's a model citizen

AWARD: Young Citizen of the Year Sufyaan Patel

By EMMA CRUCES

A Blackburn teenager has been named Citizen of the Year in recognition of his volunteer work in the community.

Seventeen-year-old Sufyaan Patel, of Preston New Road, was awarded The High Sheriff of Lancashire's Young Citizen of the Year Award after completing more than 260 hours volunteering this year.

He has shared his time with a number of diverse organisations, including Royal Blackburn Hospital and the Brownhill Pharmacy, where he helps disabled and vulnerable people.

Overall he has participated in clean-up campaigns, anti-vandalism camp-aigns, recycling, fundraising, tree planting, and other projects which promote pride in the community.

Sufyaan said: "Winning has come as a total surprise.

"Looking at all the other nominees it's clear they are all worthy winners and I'm absolutely ecstatic to have received the award.

"I would like to thank everyone for nominating and sponsoring me, and the Young Citizen of the Year Award itself for recognising what I do."

The winner and runners-up were selected by the High Sheriff of Lancashire Susan Reynolds, and a panel of judges from LANPAC, who administer the awards, Lancashire Constabulary, BAE Systems and former High Sheriff Rodney Swarbrick, who initiated the award.

Sufyaan was among 17 shortlisted finalists invited to attend a presentation at Lancashire Police Headquarters, in Hutton, after being nominated by Mohammed Kathrada, the Youth Volunteer Development Manager at Blackburn with Darwen Council for Voluntary Service.

£800m BAE plans preview

By CHRIS HOPPER

This is how BAE Systems' huge East Lancashire site will look after an £800million investment plan is completed.

The defence giant, which employs 5,800 at its world-leading Samlesbury base, has begun work which will create 800 new jobs and state-of-the-art facilities.

The new picture shows how Samlesbury will look in 2015 when the redevelopment is expected to be completed.

Although BAE bosses will not label the plans, saying it could pose a security risk, the investment includes new purpose-built aerodromes to handle BAE's work on the multi-billion pound F-35 Joint Strike Fighter programme.

The aircraft, which will be partly built at Samlesbury, is the world's most advanced military fighter jet and is one of BAE's prized contracts. Dave Holmes, BAE's director of investment and infrastructure, said: "The development of Samlesbury site is essential to support the ongoing and future aircraft programmes within BAE Systems' military air solutions business.

"The investments in infrastructure, machining and people will position the site to ensure it can continue to deliver a number of internationally important aircraft programmes and sustain a significant engineering and manufacturing regional presence."

SPRAWLING: How the BAE's site at Samlesbury will look in 2015

Last year, BAE's plans to heavily invest at Samlesbury were hailed by East Lancashire business leaders.

The sprawling site, which has its main entrance on the A59, originally opened in 1939 and now costs around £500million a year to run.

It is so large that bosses will need to apply to both South Ribble and Ribble Valley councils for planning consent as the base straddles both boroughs

We've never looked back since buying our holiday home'

SOUTH LAKELAND Leisure Village is hosting an open week to show why it's the number one location for holiday homes.

The stunning lake-side development, on the Lancashire/Cumbria border, is open to the public until Sunday (March 7) along with the nearby five-star caravan parks, Hall More and Fell End.

Open Week Feb 27 - March 7
A lakeside lodge development close to the Lakes & Dales with restaurant & leisure complex. 11 month season
Holiday Lodges from £65,000
South Lakeland Leisure Village

Featuring a range of modern caravan holiday homes, exclusive eco-lodges and the limited edition new Country Homes, the sites appeal to anyone wanting a peaceful hideaway in a picturesque location.

Owned by Preston-born businessman John Morphet, and his company Pure Leisure Group, Fell End and Hall More sit in the heart of the Arnside and Silverdale Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, while South Lakeland Leisure Village is just a stone's throw away on the edge of the Lakes, Lune Valley and Dales, near Carnforth

Here families and couples have the chance to buy homes they never dreamed they could afford – whether they choose to use their second home exclusively for themselves or to maximise their investment potential by renting out to holidaymakers, with many of those that do managing a staggering return of seven per cent over five years.

"Open week is a chance for people to meet the team and see what's available – whether their budget's £15,000 or £195,000," says Mr Morphet, whose other property includes the Royal Westmoreland estate in Barbados, where Gary Lineker and Michael Vaughan have homes.

Open Week Feb 27 - March 7
Award winning country park in the Arnside & Silverdale area of the Southern Lake District with new restaurant & leisure complex
Holiday Caravans from £19,995
Fell End Caravan Park

"It's a great opportunity for caravan owners to upgrade to a lodge, which in the long run can work out much better value."

One pair who have been enjoying the 'time of their lives' since buying a holiday home on the leisure village, are Phil and Marie Smith. The retired couple from Blackburn bought their fully-furnished, two-bedroom lodge after passing the 'village' on their way home from the Lakes and now spend much of the year in it.

"We were thinking of buying a caravan and had been looking at parks in the area when we passed the entrance to the leisure village and decided to pop in," says Mrs Smith. "As we drove in and saw the lake I said to Phil: 'ooh this is the place for us'. And that was that – we went from thinking about getting a caravan to selling the house we'd lived in for 40 years and buying a holiday home here. We just fell in love with the place and now we spend a lot of the year here - we just settled in straight away."

"We've got a great restaurant on our doorstep and we love the leisure facilities – we use the gym nearly every day and most of the time it's like having our own private pool," adds Mr Smith. "The grandchildren love it here and there's a great social scene. In the summer we sit out on our terrace with the BBQ and we meet the other owners and holidaymakers for coffee in the restaurant most mornings, as well as have regular outings together.

"The location means we can be in the Lakes or Dales in 20 minutes, or we can nip back to Blackburn in an hour. We're in the thick of it yet it's so peaceful and there's all sorts of wildlife about."

In fact, the conservation efforts at South Lakeland Leisure Village, Hall More and Fell End have earned the sites David Bellamy Gold Awards. Not to mention fans in the form of otters and bitterns, both of which reside lake-side.

Open Week Feb 27 - March 7
A select country retreat in the Arnside & Silverdale area close to the Southern Lake District including use of facilities at nearby Fell End
Holiday Caravans from £23,995
Hall More Caravan Park

Phil and Marie Smith from Blackburn.

And while a state-of-the art gym, pool, steam rooms and beauty therapy suites compliment the restaurant at the leisure village, similar facilities were recently unveiled at Fell End, at a cost of £3 million. Of course owners have unlimited use of both complexes and, in addition, anyone who buys a holiday home during the open week gets four years' membership at Silverdale Golf Club thrown in.

For more information on the event or holiday home enquiries in general, contact Andy Crowe on 01524 784784 or visit www.southlakelandleisurevillage.co.uk or www.fellendcaravanpark.co.uk

ON THE CARDS: Coun Khonat has his fingerprints taken for the ID card

200 go for ID cards

By DAVID WATKINSON

More than 200 people in Blackburn have signed up for controversial national identity cards, which were launched in the town last week.

After a pilot project in Greater Manchester and parts of London the cards, which can be used as an alternative to a passport, are now available to people in the town.

The cards have been championed by Jack Straw and the Labour government but initial plans to make the cards compulsory have now been dropped.

Newsagent Suleman Khonat became the first person to enrol his fingerprint biometrics for the card at Blackburn's Identity and Passport Office in Ainsworth Street.

He is one of 200 people who live or work in Blackburn who have booked an appointment to enrol for a card.

The benefits of the £30 cards include their use as a proof of age and identity. They can also be used to travel around Europe in place of a passport. Coun Khonat said: "I'm delighted people in Blackburn can now enrol for an Identity Card in the town centre.

"The card is easy to carry, costs £30, and helps protect the owner from identity theft and fraud."

The Home Office minister responsible for identity cards, Meg Hillier, said: "Identity cards are already proving themselves extremely useful in daily life, from opening a bank account to entering a nightclub, and for travel to Europe."

Anyone who lives or works in the town and holds a current or recently expired British passport can apply for a card. The cards have been controversial because of the huge cost to the government and data issues as well as fears they could be made compulsory for everyone.

People have also questioned the need for the cards when people can use passports.

For more information or make an appointment for an identity card call 0300 330 0000. The cards will be rolled out across the rest of country later this year.

Bus lane 'will never happen'

By CHRIS HOPPER

The deputy leader of Blackburn with Darwen Council says he fears a major £45million transport scheme will "never happen" – after a snub by a Government minister.

The flagship Pennine Reach project, designed to link up Darwen, Blackburn and Accrington via a high-speed bus route, was set to be rubber-stamped by Transport Secretary Lord Adonis earlier this month.

But it has emerged that the scheme, which would see dedicated bus lanes built between the three towns, is still sat on the minister's desk, prompting critics to question whether it will ever become a reality as cash-strapped Government mandarins prepare to make cuts.

Tony Melia (pictured), leader of the For Darwen party and deputy council leader, said: "It seems as if the Government has run out of money and programmes like this will run out of funds. For that reason, I don't think Pennine Reach will ever happen – I think it will be chopped.

"It will be a blow for Blackburn, Darwen and Accrington but my view is that the scheme was never right and we should have gone for a tram system."

Funding to the tune of £45million for the long-awaited Pennine Reach project was provisionally approved in 2006, although Secretary of State backing is also needed before work can begin.

That needed to come this month if, as planned, work was to start in Spring 2011, with the scheme completed in 2014.

Council chiefs behind Pennine Reach say passengers would get a faster, more efficient service with 'through ticketing' to make multiple journeys cheaper. The project would also see a special 'hub' or mini-bus station set up in the Ewood area of Blackburn.

However, critics say Pennine Reach would create traffic chaos and pollution down the A666.

A Department for Transport spokeswoman said a decision had yet to be made by the Secretary of State.

Coun Alan Cottam, Blackburn with Darwen councillor with responsilbity for transport, was unavailable for comment.

Academy road safety measures

A RAFT of road safety measures are to be put in place ahead of the opening of Darwen's new academy.

The £48million building is set to open in September opposite Sainsbury's, off Redearth Road.

Council bosses say the changes are "critically important" to keep more than 1,000 students safe when they move from the former Darwen Moorland High School site. The changes include:

- New zebra crossings on Redearth Road and Sudell Road.
- 20mph zones on Hardman Way, Redearth Road and Sudell Road.
- Railings for pedestrians at the school's exit on to Redearth Road, which is to be widened.
- 'No waiting' traffic restrictions.

Mothers Day

Sunday 14th March

A day to pamper your mother

ADVERTISEMENT FEATURE

THE day we pamper that special person in our lives — our mum — is fast approaching.

This year, Mothers' Day is on Sunday, March 14, as it is the middle Sunday in Lent.

It's the occasion when we get the chance to say thanks for everything she has done for us the rest of the year, usually by buying her her own special gift.

The shops are now full of gift ideas and cards, while local hotels, pubs and restaurants are preparing for what is one of the busiest Sundays of the year.

For many families decide to give mum a day off from cooking Sunday lunch and treat her to a meal instead — so if that is your plan, it's often best to book to ensure her table.

There's lots of gift ideas for Mothers' Day, from perfume to fancy goods, jewellery and beauty treatments, or to be different you could treat her to a special day out, maybe to visit an historic house, gardens, or a trip to the coast or countryside.

Mothers' Day has been celebrated since at least the 16th century, but no one is really sure how the idea began.

We do know that on this day, about 400 years ago, people who lived in small villages made a point of attending the nearest large church, the Mother Church.

People who did this would say they had gone 'a mothering'.

Another belief is that many centuries ago people in service were only allowed one day a year to go home and visit family, usually on Mothering Sunday.

The maids would bake a cake to take home for their mother, while others would pick flowers from the meadows to give as a gift.

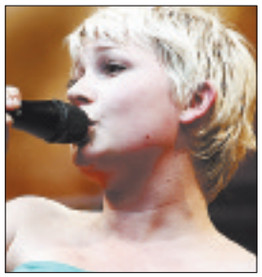
Why Lady is Gaga for us

Alphabeat are a Danish six-piece band, and released their self-titled debut album in 2008, which reached No 2 in the charts. Singles Fascination and 10,000 Nights Of Thunder were also huge hits. The band, originally from Silkeborg, are currently on tour with Lady GaGa, and release their second album, The Beat Is, on March 1. We caught up with singer Stine Bramsen



60 SECONDS WITH ...ALPHABEAT

YOU'RE SUPPORTING LADY GAGA ON HER TOUR AT THE MOMENT. YOU MUST BE PLEASED?

Yes, it was amazing that we were asked to do it.

DO YOU THINK YOU'LL PICK UP SOME DIVA-ISH TIPS FROM HER?

Who knows! Probably. When we do our own tour later in the year I'll have to start being really demanding. And, take a tea cup with me everywhere.

IT'S A BIG TOUR TO BE PART OF, BUT YOU'VE TURNED DOWN QUITE A FEW OTHER TOURS WITH HUGE-NAME ARTISTS. WHY?

It's all to do with timing. We were offered a support slot with The Spice Girls when they reformed, but it wouldn't have been right for us to do that. We thought it was better to do our own thing for longer, so more people could see what we were like on our own. We didn't want to just be known as the band that supported The Spice Girls. And if we'd done that tour we would have had to delay starting work on our second album, so we said no.

ARE YOU FULLY PREPARED FOR THE ALBUM TO BE RELEASED?

We've been back in Denmark for a short while to do TV shows there and other bits and bobs of promo. We've been rehearsing a little bit too.

TRAINEE PLUMBERS REQUIRED

Applicants can apply for full City & Guilds plumber and Gas safe Register (formally CORGI) training places. No experience necessary but you must be keen, motivated and prepared to work hard learning this new lifetime skill. On fully qualifying you could join one of our associated plumbing companies.

After 6 weeks of training you qualify to install bathrooms and, in 4 more weeks, to install central heating systems, learning in a state of the art training facility, the largest in Europe. On fully qualifying you will become one of the highest qualified new plumbers in the UK. Contribution to the training is required and training and employment are both subject to an interview.

Plumbing positions are predicted to be the hardest to fill even in 2015 and average earnings of £31,500* this year are also predicted. Secure your future by ringing up to 7pm weekdays and 1pm Saturday, for an interview. Quote ref: C1178

Free taster sessions Available.

McBride

Blowmould Engineer

Robert McBride Ltd is the largest own label manufacturer of domestic cleaning products, supplying all major retailers throughout the UK.
We are looking for a Blowmould Engineer to work with our team that supports all aspects of the production process, by proactive and reactive installation, maintenance and repair of plant. To maximise process efficiency and minimise wastage and prevent downtime within statutory and Company safety procedures. You will also have responsibility of achieving mould changes on time every time and play an active role in PPM activities.
To be able to fulfil this role, you will have a similar experience of a manufacturing environment. Be able to identify and introduce process improvements using lean manufacturing tools and techniques to ensure efficient mould changes and reduce downtime. You should have good Health & Safety awareness and understand the importance of good housekeeping and working to the highest quality standards.
Ideally you should have previous experience of Blowmould Machinery and be trained to NVQ III or equivalent in engineering.
Hours of work initially will be 8.00am – 4.30pm Monday to Friday.

Warehouse Team Leader

Robert McBride Ltd is the largest own label manufacturer of domestic cleaning products, supplying all major retailers throughout the UK.
We are looking for a hands on Team Leader to motivate and engage a small team within our Warehouse Department.
To be able to fulfil this role, you will need excellent communication and organisational skills, be computer literate, capable of handling difficult situations and be able to prioritise the workload. You should have good Health & Safety awareness and understand the importance of good housekeeping and working to the highest quality standards.
Ideally you should have previous supervisory experience and posses a current FLT and Reach Truck licence.
Hours of work will be a rotating 6-2 / 2-10 shift.
If you believe you possess the skills, qualities, and enthusiasm to fulfil either of these roles then we want to hear from you.
Interested, then please send a full CV and covering letter stating why you are suitable for the position and include details of current remuneration to:
Claire Lemon, HR Manager, Robert McBride Household, Windermere Avenue, Burnley BB10 2AE
or e-mail c.lemon@mcbride.co.uk by Wednesday 10 March 2010.

OODLES OF PRAISE FOR POODLE RESCUERS

While walking along the canal last week in Wheelton, my dogs and I A lady in distress with her poodles we did spy. Both her poodles had decided to "dance on ice." The scene that unveiled was not very nice. One had crashed through the ice and was unable to get out. The poor black poodle,shivering,its future was in doubt. How do you stand there and watch your dog die? The quick thinking lady rang the firebrigade in the blink of an eye. The predicament of the poodle was beyond belief, Then the sirens we heard ,what a relief ! The petrified poodle was rescued from the canal bank side, By an ingenious loop,without which it would have died. We were all elated as we left the scene, Without the firefighters who knows where the poodle would have been.
